Almighty Father, you have given your only Son to die for our sins and to rise again for our justification: grant us so to put away the leaven of malice and wickedness that we may always serve you in pureness of living and truth; through the merits of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Liturgy of the Word;

Epistle Reading;

Acts 4: 32-35

Our reading today is read by;

Carole Bell

The whole group of those who believed were of one heart and soul, and no one claimed private ownership of any possessions, but everything they owned was held in common. With great power the apostles gave their testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all. There was not a needy person among them, for as many as owned lands or houses sold them and brought the proceeds of what was sold. They laid it at the apostles' feet, and it was distributed to each as any had need.

Gospel Reading;

John 20: 19-31

When it was evening on the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, 'Peace be with you.' After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, 'Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.' When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, 'Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained.' But Thomas (who was called the Twin), one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples told him, 'We have seen the Lord.' But he said to them, 'Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands, and put my finger in the mark of the nails and my hand in his side, I will not believe.' A week later his disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were shut, Jesus came and stood among them and said, 'Peace be with you.' Then he said to Thomas, 'Put your finger here and see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it in my side. Do not doubt but believe.' Thomas answered him, 'My Lord and my God!' Jesus said to him, 'Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe.' Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book. But these are written so that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that through believing you may have life in his name.

Intercessions by

Peter Shaw

Lord God our Father, through our Saviour Jesus Christ you have assured your children of eternal life and in baptism have made us one with him: deliver us from the death of sin and raise us to new life in your love, in the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, by the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen

Dates for your diary:

Amadeus Concert – Saturday 21st April in Church– 7.30pm Amadeus: the Chamber Choir (another of David Holroyd's choirs!), is making a return to St Peter's for a concert which he describes as Sublime and Ridiculous. The first half is a performance of Duruflé's Requiem - think Fauré, and then even more exquisite. The second half, after a glass of wine, or juice consists of the less serious ... not completely ridiculous, but definitely less serious, with music by Gershwin, John Rutter and Lennon & McCartney. Tickets (available from David or Gill Holroyd, or Wendy Thorpe) are £5, in aid of a fabulous charity: Mary's Meals. (Also online at www.trybooking.co.uk/2641) All ticket sales/donations will be match-funded by Barclays. To use the well-worn cliché - "something for everyone"!

Electoral Roll - The revised Electoral Roll is on display on the cabinet adjacent to the Lectern. No further additions may be made until after the Annual Parochial Church Meeting on Sunday 22nd April.

Bible Study with Alison Woodhouse - No Bible Study this week

Christian Aid Week 13th-19th May - Have you a few minutes to help deliver envelopes along one road in Formby? If so, please contact Paul McHenry - Tel 01704 871722
