Hope you are all well and safe. When did you last say Thank you, it's Important to say thank you when someone does something for you.

It makes them feel happy and valued. Today we are going to explore a story where Jesus does something for 10 people but only one says Thank you.

Let's see what happens in the stories we have.

This will be the last session until September but there will be a puzzle sheet and cartoon clip each week. We hope you have enjoyed Sunday Club at Home and that you enjoy your summer.

Story for our Younger Children

The man who came back – from the lion’s storyteller bible written by Bob Hartman

One, two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight, nine, and Ten.

There were ten lepers on the road, one day. And no one would go near them. Their fingers were numb. Their faces were scared. They were terribly, terribly ill. One, two, three, four. Five, six, seven, eight, nine. And ten.

There were ten lepers on the road, one day. And Jesus came walking by, “Jesus” they cried. “Oh, Jesus!” they begged. “Save Us. Please make us well!” One, two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight, nine, and Ten.

There were ten lepers on the road, one day. And Jesus prayed for them. “Now go!” he said. “Go. Find a Priest. And he’ll tell you if you are well.”

One, two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight, nine, and ten.

There were ten lepers on the road that day. And then suddenly there weren’t! Their fingers were fine. Their faces like new! They were happy and healed and whole!

One, two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight, and nine.

Nine lepers (who weren’t lepers anymore!) rushing off to share their good news. But leper number 10 went straight back to Jesus, to thank him for what he had done. One, two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight, nine, and ten.

“I healed ten lepers on the road today.” Said Jesus to the man. “But where are the rest? Never mind, I’m just pleased that you came back to thank me!”

Another Story for older children

The lepers taken from the diary of a disciple Scripture Union

Jesus and his mates carried on their super long walk to Jerusalem. While they were walking, they heard some random voices shouting “Jesus HELP US! Jesus!” They looked around, and there was no one there. Maybe they needed a nap-hearing voices is never good. But then they REALISED that if they squinted into the distance they could JUST ABOUT make out some people, just standing there. There were ten of them altogether, just standing there SHOUTING at Jesus, odd, right? Well, not really. These people had skin disease. They were covered in nasty sores and scabs. Bleurgh.

Everyone thought they might CATCH it if they got too close, so they got used to having to SHOUT at everyone from miles away. But Jesus just looked at them all and said, "Go and let the PRIEST see you."

So they did, before they got there they realised they were healed. Their skin was back to normal and they knew they were well. One of them, a Samaritan, was so amazed and thankful that he couldn't RESIST going back to find Jesus. When he did, he couldn't thank him enough.

He was on his knees in front of Jesus shouting, "THANK YOU, thank you, thank you, thank you!"

He hadn't quite realised yet that he didn't have to shout anymore, he was right there, with Jesus. But then Jesus said, "There were TEN of you earlier, and you were HEALED so how come you're the only ONE who came back? You're a Samaritan, but you came back to thank me! You can go now. Your faith has made you better." So off he went.
