Alan & Margaret Woods in celebration of their
Diamond Wedding Anniversary on 3rd June

The Collect;

Lord Jesus Christ, we thank you that in this wonderful sacrament you have given us the memorial of your passion: grant us so to reverence the sacred mysteries of your body and blood that we may know within ourselves and show forth in our lives the fruits of your redemption; for you are alive and reign with the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Liturgy of the Word;

Epistle Reading; I Corinthians 11: 23-26

Our reading today is read by;

Keith Millington

For I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took a loaf of bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, 'This is my body that is for you. Do this in remembrance of me.' In the same way he took the cup also, after supper, saying, 'This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.' For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

Gospel Reading; Luke 9: 11-17

Shena Edwards

When the crowds found out about it, they followed him; and he welcomed them, and spoke to them about the kingdom of God, and healed those who needed to be cured. The day was drawing to a close, and the twelve came to him and said, "Send the crowd away, so that they may go into the surrounding villages and countryside, to lodge and get provisions; for we are here in a deserted place." But he said to them, "You give them something to eat." They said, "We have no more than five loaves and two fish—unless we are to go and buy food for all these people." For there were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, "Make them sit down in groups of about fifty each." They did so and made them all sit down. And taking the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven, and blessed and broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd. And all ate and were filled. What was left over was gathered up, twelve baskets of broken pieces.

Post Communion Prayer

All praise to you, our God and Father, for you have fed us with the bread of heaven and quenched our thirst from the true vine: hear our prayer that, being grafted into Christ, we may grow together in unity and feast with him in his kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

We ask that you continue to observe social distancing, use the hand sanitiser, wear a face mask and avoid 'mingling'. We will stagger the congregation leaving church to avoid the bottle neck of the porch being an issue. Please take this Bulletin home and return the service booklet to the box provided at the door. Thank you.

The Parish Office remains open but please phone, email or use the post box rather than call in person if possible. Tel: 01704 871171 office@stpetersformby.co.uk

The Parish Giving Scheme online - Webinar

Do you already give regularly to St Peter's? Or are you interested in setting up regular giving to your church? If the answer is yes, then the 'PGS Online' webinar on the 17 June is for you. Thursday 17th June 2021 10am and 7pm

Book now for one of our webinars that explain how easy it is for your church to benefit from PGS

A new online functionality comes to Parish Giving Scheme (PGS), this webinar tells it as it is: how your church benefits from the PGS and how easy it is for anyone new to PGS to join and how givers already using the PGS can manage their giving to their church online. Our Rule of Life invites us to Give; PGS makes it easy. Cath Gaskell, from the Resources Team at the Diocese, is running a one-hour webinar, which will run twice on Thursday 17th June, at 10.00am and 7.00pm. Please come along to either of them, to learn and take the opportunity to ask questions about how the Parish Giving Scheme can help all people wishing to give to their church.
