The Liturgy of the Word;

Epistle Reading; Hebrews 4:12-16

Our reading today is read by;

John Medley

Indeed, the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing until it divides soul from spirit, joints from marrow; it is able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart. And before him no creature is hidden, but all are naked and laid bare to the eyes of the one to whom we must render an account.

Since, then, we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast to our confession. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who in every respect has been tested as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore approach the throne of grace with boldness, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

Gospel Reading; Mark 10:17-31

Shena Edwards

As he was setting out on a journey, a man ran up and knelt before him, and asked him, "Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" Jesus said to him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: 'You shall not murder; You shall not commit adultery; You shall not steal; You shall not bear false witness; You shall not defraud; Honor your father and mother.'" He said to him, "Teacher, I have kept all these since my youth." Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said, "You lack one thing; go, sell what you own, and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me." When he heard this, he was shocked and went away grieving, for he had many possessions.

Then Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, "How hard it will be for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!" And the disciples were perplexed at these words. But Jesus said to them again, "Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God." They were greatly astounded and said to one another, "Then who can be saved?" Jesus looked at them and said, "For mortals it is impossible, but not for God; for God all things are possible."

Peter began to say to him, "Look, we have left everything and followed you." Jesus said, "Truly I tell you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields, for my sake and for the sake of the good news, who will not receive a hundredfold now in this age—houses, brothers and sisters, mothers and children, and fields with persecutions—and in the age to come eternal life. But many who are first will be last, and the last will be first."

Post Communion Prayer

Holy and blessed God, you have fed us with the body and blood of your Son and filled us with your Holy Spirit: may we honour you, not only with our lips but in lives dedicated to the service of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

St Peter’s Church – Plan to Removing Restrictions – NEXT STEP

We are asking that you continue to wear face masks at the 10am Sunday service. This service has the highest number of people attending and a mix of age groups. We wear masks for the peace of mind of others and we do not want anyone to be discouraged from attending. It is possible to socially distance at the 8.30am Eucharist and at Evensong so masks are optional and this includes the Wednesday Eucharist. It has been wonderful to see so many coming back to our services and we want to make this as easy as possible for everyone. We ask that you continue use the hand sanitiser while attending services.

St. Peter's Church 275th Anniversary Preparations CALLING ALL GARDENERS!

As part of the church's 275th anniversary year of celebration events planned for 2022, Formby Flower Club have very kindly agreed to stage a Flower Festival in the church in June, but they need our help in certain areas now. Before winter sets in, they are asking for any of the following, to create 'dry sculptures' garlands etc.:

Poppy seed heads, agapanthus, alliums, honesty, achillea, statice and helichrysum - dry upside down in bunches, hanging in a dry place. Hydrangea heads - stand in an inch of water and leave to evaporate naturally then dry dry out. If there are any other flower heads in your garden not mentioned here, but that you think might be useful, please experiment with drying them out. You might see your contributions make all the difference!

We would love as many people to be involved as possible in this event, and others, as they are advertised. St. Peter's Church 275th Anniversary Year Is a community event. Let's all feel a part of it in some way! In anticipation of your assistance, thank you.

If you have any poppy seed heads, Honesty, Hydrangea and many more.... Please save and dry out for St. Peter's Flower Festival, to be staged in June 2022, before you tidy up for winter! Many thanks, Fiona Martin
