The Collect

Almighty and everlasting God, you are always more ready to hear than we to pray and to give more than either we desire or deserve: pour down upon us the abundance of your mercy, forgiving us those things of which our conscience is afraid and giving us those good things which we are not worthy to ask but through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Liturgy of the Word

Epistle Reading - Romans 12:1-8

Our reading today is read by;

Sue Robertson

I appeal to you therefore, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds, so that you may discern what is the will of God - what is good and acceptable and perfect. For by the grace given to me I say to everyone among you not to think of yourself more highly than you ought to think, but to think with sober judgement, each according to the measure of faith that God has assigned. For as in one body we have many members, and not all the members have the same function, so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually we are members one of another. We have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us: prophecy, in proportion to faith; ministry, in ministering; the teacher, in teaching; the exhorter, in exhortation; the giver, in generosity; the leader, in diligence; the compassionate, in cheerfulness.

Gospel Reading - Mark 10:13-16

Shena Edwards

People were bringing little children to him in order that he might touch them; and the disciples spoke sternly to them. But when Jesus saw this, he was indignant and said to them, 'Let the little children come to me; do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of God belongs. Truly I tell you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will never enter it.' And he took them up in his arms, laid his hands on them, and blessed them.

Intercessions

Fred Nye

Post Communion Prayer

God of all mercy, in this eucharist you have set aside our sins and given us your healing: grant that we who are made whole in Christ may bring that healing to this broken world, in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

BREAKFAST CHURCH – Saturday 3rd September at 9am

Breakfast Church meets on the first Saturday of each month at 9am in the Bier House and uses the Iona Morning Service. Tea & toast is available afterwards. This service gives time to reflect on the readings and pray for specific needs in our world, our parish or for those whom we know. Everyone is very welcome.

Donations Card Machine, Yellow Envelopes, QR or on the Plate

For card payments a contactless card-reader is situated near the main door. For cash donations (Yellow Envelopes), there is a plate near the main door. If you are a taxpayer, the value of your donation increases by 25%. Or you may want to use the QR code to make a donation. Thank you for your gifts.

Children in Church We love to have children in church but we don't want them to be bored and we want to make it as easy as possible for children and parents to attend services. There are boxes with books, toys etc for the children. There are also activity bags. Please do help yourself or ask the welcome team for help. The Bier House is open during services in case anyone needs a toilet break please do not worry about coming in and out. The service is also relayed onto a screen in the Bier House. Please feel welcome

IF YOU ARE NEW TO THE PARISH WE WARMLY WELCOME YOU.

Saturday Crew Update

Julie Rowlandson from International Aid Trust is coming to talk at our meeting on Saturday 2nd September in the Bier House. Her presentations are always interesting and informative, keeping us in touch with our Shoebox destinations. So far this year 250 shoeboxes have been dispatched and with your help we are well on the way to exceeding last year's total of 310 boxes. Please try to join us on Saturday 2nd September. You will be made very welcome. Grateful thanks for your continued support. Anne Scarrott
